There are many shops for you to explore and enjoy lunch (on your own) here. Not far from the shrine is the Meoto Iwa, a pair of large and small rocks located side by side in the sea. The larger of the two rocks represents the husband and the smaller one represents the wife. Both rocks are connected by a shimenawa rope which acts as the division between the spiritual and earthly realms. After lunch, visit Kumano Nachi Taisha, one of the three Kumano shrines, situated a few kilometers inland from the coastal hot spring resort of Katsura. The shrine is part of a large complex of neighboring religious sites that exemplify the past fusion of Buddhist and Shinto. The site also boasts the tallest waterfall in Japan, Nachi no Taki. Day 8: Wed, Nov 19 – WAKAYAMA – MT. KOYA – OSAKA – KYOTO. After breakfast, explore Mt. Koya (Koya-san), the center of Shingon Buddhism; an important Buddhist sect which was introduced to Japan in 805 by Kobo Daishi (also known as Kukai), one of Japan's most significant religious figures. A small, secluded temple town has developed around the sect's headquarters that Kobo Daishi built on Koya-san's wooded mountaintop. It is also the site of Kobo Daishi's mausoleum and the start and end point of the Shikoku 88 Temple Pilgrimage. Kobo Daishi began construction on the original Garan Temple Complex in 826 after wandering the country for years in search of a suitable place to center his religion. Since then over one hundred temples have sprung up along the streets of Koya-san. We visit the most important among them. Kongobuji, the head temple of Shingon Buddhism. Next explore the Kuromon Ichiba Market, a lively covered market which stretches for 580 meters in Osaka's Chuo Ward. The market is famous for its fresh seafood, fruits and vegetables, meats, dried fish, pickles, and confectionery. Many stalls will prepare, cook and serve their food to you right on the spot! An excellent place to stroll, sample, and snack on a delicious variety of fresh market foods. Enjoy lunch on your own while here. Lastly, visit Dotonbori, one of Osaka's most popular tourist destinations, this street runs parallel to the Dotonbori canal. It is a popular shopping and entertainment district and is also known as a food destination. Transfer to the hotel in Kyoto. The remainder of the day is at your leisure. The Local Guide will have suggestions on various dining and shopping opportunities nearby. MIYAKO HOTEL KYOTO HACHIGO (3 Nights) (B)

After a delicious Japanese/Western buffet breakfast at the hotel, embark on a full day of sightseeing beginning with a visit to Sanjusangen-do, the Buddhist temple famous for its 1,001 statues of Kannon, the goddess of compassion. Next, visit Nijo Castle. After the Tokugawa Shogunate fell in 1867, Nijo Castle was used as an imperial palace for a while before being donated to the city and opened up to the public as a historic site. Its palace buildings are arguably the best surviving examples of castle palace architecture of Japan's feudal era. Today's hands-on experience is surikomi yuzen (brush dyed yuzen). Since the patterns are dyed by placing a paper stencil over a table mat you can make an authentic piece, even if this is your first time.
