Day 1: Mon, Sept 15 – HONOLULU. Depart Honolulu via Japan Airlines flt #783 at 1:35 pm.

Day 2: Tue, Sept 16 – TOKYO. Arrive at the Narita International Airport at 4:45 pm. After entry formalities, transfer by coach to your hotel. Enjoy a Welcome Dinner at the hotel. GRAND NIKKO TOKYO DAIBA (2 Nights) (D)

Day 3: Wed, Sept 17 – TOKYO. After a delicious breakfast buffet, depart the hotel for a full day of sightseeing and activities. Begin at Asakusa, the center of Tokyo's shitamachi (literally "low city") districts, where an atmosphere of the Tokyo of past decades survives. Asakusa's main attraction is Sensoji, a very popular Buddhist temple built in the 7th century. The temple is approached via the Nakamise, a shopping street that has been providing temple visitors with a variety of traditional local snacks and tourist souvenirs for centuries. Enjoy free time to shop and explore Sensoji on your own. You'll have time to enjoy lunch (on your own) here as well. After lunch, explore the all-new TeamLab Borderless – Azabudai Hills. "TeamLab Borderless is a world of artworks without boundaries, a museum without a map created by art collective TeamLab. Artworks move out of rooms, relate to other works, influence each other, and at times intermingle, without boundaries. Through this group of works, one continuous world without boundaries is created. Immerse your body in borderless art. Wander, explore with intention, discover, and create a world with others." Return to the hotel for an evening of leisure. Your Local Guide will have recommendations for shopping and dining opportunities near the hotel. (B)

Day 4: Thur, Sept 18 – TOKYO – NAGANO – YUDANAKA. After a delicious breakfast buffet, transfer to Tokyo station by coach. Transfer to Nagano by Shinkansen Bullet Train with reserved seating. Upon arrival in Nagano, take a tour of Zenkoji Temple, one of the most important and popular temples in Japan. It was founded in the 7th century and stores the first Buddhist statue ever to be brought into Japan when Buddhism was first introduced in the 6th century. The original statue is hidden while a copy of it is shown to the public every six years for a few weeks. The next opportunity to see the statue is in 2027. Similarly to Sensoji, Zenkoji is also approached via the Nakamise, a shopping street that has been providing temple visitors with a variety of traditional local snacks and tourist souvenirs for centuries. You'll have free time to shop and enjoy lunch (on your own) here. Transfer to the hotel. Soak in the soothing onsen hot springs and enjoy an authentic Kaiseki Dinner. The onsen facilities – which are divided for men and women – and allow you to enjoy the onsen hot springs whether indoors or outdoors. The high-quality service and facilities are sure to become some of your fondest memories of your visit to Japan. ISSA NO KOMICHI "BIYU NO YADO" (2 Nights) (B, D)

Day 5: Fri, Sept 19 – YUDANAKA – NAGANO – YUDANAKA. After breakfast, depart the hotel for a full day of touring. Begin the day in Obuse, a small town in northern Nagano, renown for Edo Period (1603–1867) woodblock painter, Katsushika Hokusai (1760–1849). Best known for his ukiyo-e woodblock print The Great Wave off Kanagawa, Hokusai spent the later years of his life in Obuse after being invited there by Takai Kozan, a wealthy farmer and merchant. During his stay, Hokusai painted several masterpieces including Dragon and Phoenix for the ceiling of the Higashimachi Festival Float, Masculine Waves and Feminine Waves for the ceiling of the Kanmachi Festival Float, and Phoenix for the ceiling of the main hall at Gansho-in temple. Several of the town's highlights are related to the artist. Enjoy free time to explore the many craft shops and stores that litter this town. After lunch, visit Oyaki Farm, a new factory, café, and store by Irohado to showcase their oyaki. Irohado's popular oyaki are prepared one at a time by hand, the wheat and buckwheat flour dough stuffed with local farm and mountain vegetables, mushrooms, and other fillings. Oven baked rather than steamed, Irohado's oyaki have an addictively crisp crust. You can easily make a meal out of these tasty snacks. Return to the hotel for another Kaiseki Dinner. (B, L, D)

Day 6: Sat, Sept 20 – YUDANAKA – NIIGATA. After breakfast, depart the hotel for Niigata. Take a short break from the bus ride at Yoneyama SA, to stretch your legs, pick up a snack or two, or shop for local souvenirs. Once in Niigata, you'll have free time to get lunch (on your own) and shop at AEON MALL Niigata Kameda Inter. The Shirone area of Niigata has a long and colorful history with kites. Take a tour of the Shirone Kite Museum, and see the numerous kites on display from Japan and from around the world. After learning about these kites, you'll have the chance to make your own mini-kite. You don't even have to wait for the wind outside to pick up to test your creation as the museum is home to a wind tunnel – allowing you to fly it right away. What a great souvenir of this trip! Continue to the hotel in Niigata. Enjoy a little leisure time, before departing for dinner at a local restaurant. ANA CROWNE PLAZA HOTEL NIIGATA (2 Nights) (B, D)

Day 7: Sun, Sept 21 – NIIGATA. Rice is the heart of sake brewing, and Niigata Prefecture, renowned for its rice cultivation, is home to the largest number of sake breweries in Japan. Begin the day at Imayo Tsukasa Sake Brewery, a longstanding producer of sake that started brewing in the mid-Meiji Period (1868–1912). The sake crafted at Imayo Tsukasa boasts a dry yet robust flavor that harmonizes exquisitely with food. You can find some rare sakes, some that are only available in their sake shop. And for those that are not much of a drinker, sweet, creamy, non-alcoholic amazake is available as well. And for the "young at heart" try your luck at a special capsule toy "gacha-gacha" machine that allows everyone to win real sake or Amazake based on the color of the coin that they receive from the machine. Next, explore Minato Marche Pier Bandai, a food market that offers a multiple of food options, including fish caught in the Sea of Japan, to vegetables and fruit directly delivered from farms, Niigata-produced Koshihikari Rice, a variety of high-quality brand sake from across the prefecture, and all kinds of Niigata's specialties relating to food are here. Enjoy lunch (on your own) here. Then take a tour the Northern Culture Museum, which originally serving as a mansion of Ito Bunkichi, who lived in the Edo Period (1603–1868) and was one of the greatest landowners in Japan. Nowadays, the museum houses calligraphy and ceramics, lacquer ware, and documents related to Ito's family history. Don't forget to view the beautiful garden with its large pond. While there, learn how to pound mochi. It's not as easy as it looks. Return to the hotel for dinner and an evening of leisure. (B, D)

Day 8: Mon, Sept 22 – NIIGATA – SHIBATA CITY. After breakfast, depart the hotel for Shibata City. Enroute, stop at Suwa Taisha Shrine, one of Japan's oldest shrines, known for its unique festival that happens once every seven years – in which onbashira (sacred wooden pillars) are replaced and the trees selected are towed/riden down the mountain before being erected with the shrine. Today's lunch will be kamameshi, or "kettle rice," a Japanese rice dish traditionally cooked in an iron pot called a kama. Many varieties exist, but most consist of rice seasoned with soy sauce or mirin, and cooked with meat and vegetables – and it is often considered a type of takikomi gohan (a mixed rice dish). After lunch, learn about rice storage at a rice storage facility, before arriving at the hotel in Shibata City. Relax before dinner. Don't forget to try out the 2nd best onsen facilities in all of Japan. You don't want to miss out. SHIRATAMA NO YU KAHOU (3 Nights) (B, L, D)

Day 9: Tue, Sept 23 – SHIBATA CITY – RICE HARVESTING. Today is the day! We join the Sase Family in harvesting our very own organic Koshihikari Rice! Enjoy onigiri making and cooking local specialties with local farmers. Businessman and founder of the Okura Zaibatsu (Okura Financial Group), Kihachiro Okura, was born in Niigata as the son of the head of a big village in the Shibata Clan. He built a guest house in Tokyo which he named Zoshunkaku, which was later brought over to Shibata and reassembled. This evening you will be treated to a special banquet with Geiko Performances in this historic building. (B, L, D)

Your organic Koshihikari Rice will be delivered to Honolulu in the fall!

Your organic Koshihikari Rice will be delivered to Honolulu in the fall. 10 pounds per Tour Member.

Day 10: Wed, Sept 24 – SHIBATA CITY. Start the day picking fruit at a local farm. Next, visit Tonton Ichiba for a chance to purchase local ingredients from the Shibata Area. After lunch, learn about sake at the Aumont Sake Brewery. Return to the hotel for some leisure time before dinner. Tonight is your last chance to soak in the healing waters of the 2nd best onsen facilities in all of Japan. (B, L, D)

Day 11: Thur, Sept 25 – SHIBATA CITY – NIIGATA – TOKYO. After a delicious breakfast buffet, transfer to Niigata station by coach. Transfer to Tokyo by Shinkansen Bullet Train with reserved seating. Upon arrival in Tokyo, visit Toyosu Senkyaku Banrai, a shopping complex that recreates an Edo period neighborhood. Toyosu Senkyaku Banrai offers fresh food from the neighboring Toyosu Market and serves to showcase the best foods in Tokyo. Enjoy shopping here, exploring the offerings at the numerous stalls. If you get tired, head up to the 8th floor and relax at the foot bath garden – which is free of charge to all visitors. Enjoy an evening of leisure. Your Local Guide will have recommendations for shopping and dining opportunities near the hotel. GRAND NIKKO TOKYO DAIBA (2 Nights) (B)

Day 12: Fri, Sept 26 – TOKYO. Enjoy a full day at leisure. Enjoy shopping and dining in the bustling Shinjuku Area. Your Local Guide will be available to assist as needed. (B)

Day 13: Sat, Sept 27 – TOKYO – HONOLULU. The day is at your leisure until it is time to depart for the airport in the late afternoon. Transfer to the Narita International Airport for the flight home. Depart Tokyo on Japan Airlines flt #784 at 8:40 pm and arrive in Honolulu at 9:20 am the same day. Aloha and welcome home! (B)
