2026 CHERRY BLOSSOMS GRAND OKINAWA, YOKOHAMA, KAWAZU & TOKYO SHOPPING

Enjoy your choice of Japan Airlines' "Economy," "Premium Economy," or the affordable luxury of "Business" class service. Premium Economy and Business class customers will begin their journey with a relaxing visit to JAL's "Sakura Lounge" and the "Sakura Lounge - Hale" for Business class.

Very Unique Tour Itinerary! Let's explore two diverse climates and cultures in one exciting trip!

The arrival of cherry blossoms is the highlight of the Japanese year. Young and old celebrate the fleeting beauty of these delicate flowers. Okinawa has a subtropical climate, which means it is the first place in Japan to enjoy the festivities. From mid-January to mid-February, dark pink blossoms bring joy to Okinawa's islands.

OVERVIEW: Okinawa is home to a unique culture that differs considerably from that of mainland Japan. Until the islands were invaded by the Satsuma domain (present day Kagoshima Prefecture) in 1609, Okinawa existed as an entirely separate country from Japan, known as the Ryukyu Kingdom. After the invasion, the Ryukyu Kingdom served as a tributary state to Japan, but continued to be governed by the royal family from Shuri Castle (Shurijo). It was not until 1879, a few years after the Meiji Restoration, that the kingdom was abolished and incorporated into Japan as Okinawa Prefecture. The castles of Okinawa, known as "gusuku" in the Okinawan language, are among the most vivid monuments that testify to the unique cultural and historical heritage of the Ryukyu Kingdom. In the year 2000, five castles and four related sites were designated as UNESCO World Heritage Sites under the collective title of "Gusuku Sites and Related Properties of the Kingdom of Ryukyu."

Day 1: Sat, Jan 24 — HONOLULU. Depart Honolulu via Japan Airlines flt #73 at 11:30 am.

Day 2: Sun, Jan 25 — HANEDA. Arrive at the Haneda International Airport at 3:55 pm. After entry formalities, walk to your hotel connected to the airport terminal. Enjoy a buffet dinner at the hotel. HOTEL VILLA FONTAINE GRAND HANEDA AIRPORT (1 Night) (D)

Day 3: Mon, Jan 26 — HANEDA — NAHA. After a breakfast buffet at your hotel, transfer back to the Haneda airport terminal. Enjoy a bento box at the domestic departure gate. Depart Haneda Domestic Airport via Japan Airlines flt #987 at 11:30 am and arrive at the Naha International Airport at 2:25 pm. Being your exploration of Okinawa with a visit to Shuri Castle (Shurijo), the most important castle of the Ryukyu Kingdom, serving both as the central government office and royal residence. Although the main buildings of Shuri Castle were destroyed in a fire in October 2019, reconstruction to bring back the castle to its former glory is expected to be completed in 2026. Shurijo is the only castle in Okinawa that has been reconstructed. Only ruins remain of all the other castles. Dress up in Ryusou Ryukyu kimonos for a group photo! Transfer to the hotel. Walk to a nearby restaurant for dinner. HOTEL COLLECTIVE (1 Night) (B, L, D)

*Baggage will be held at the hotel in Naha. Prepare an overnight bag for a one night stay in Manza.

Day 4: Tue, Jan 27 — NAHA — ONNA — KITANAKAGUSUKU — NAGO — MANZA. After breakfast, we head north to Onna and spend the morning at Ryukyu Mura. It's basically a traditional Okinawan village with exhibits showcasing various festivals, crafts, and foods. Enjoy some performances and events held at the village, including multiple daily eisa taiko drumming performances. Then stop at AEON MALL Okinawa Rycom for shopping and lunch (on own). Next we visit an awamori (rice liquor) factory. Awamori is the signature alcoholic beverage of Okinawa and most of the Ryukyu Islands. Learn the unique process involved in making awamori. Enjoy dinner at the hotel tonight. ANA INTERCONTINENTAL MANZA BEACH RESORT (1 Night) (B, D)

Day 5: Wed, Jan 28 — MANZA — MOTOBU — NAKIJIN — NAGO — NAHA. After an incredible breakfast buffet, depart Manza for Motobu. Attend the MOTOBU YAEADAKE SAKURA FESTIVAL and walk under a canopy of pink cherry blossoms. With the cherry blossom season in Okinawa typically lasting between mid-January and early February — you'll be one of the first to see cherry blossoms in Japan! Then visit to the Churaumi Aquarium, widely considered Japan's best aquarium. It is the main attraction of the Ocean Expo Park on the former grounds of the 1975 International Ocean Expo. The aquarium was completely redesigned and reopened in 2002. The highlight of a visit to the Churaumi Aquarium is the massive Kuroshio Tank, one of the largest in the world. The tank takes its name from the warm Kuroshio current which plays a large part in the variety of Okinawa's of marine life. Next, visit the ruins of Nakijin Castle. Learn about the history of Okinawa. The castle — a former residence of the Ryukyu Kingdom governor during the 14th century — is a designated UNESCO World Heritage site. On the way back to Naha City, stop at the roadside Michi-no-Eki KYODA for a chance to stretch the legs and get a little shopping done as well. Not only do they provide a clean and convenient rest stop, but you will find an array of farmer-direct merchandise along with other omiyage items. The remainder of the evening is at your leisure. HOTEL COLLECTIVE (3 Nights) (B)

Day 6: Thur, Jan 29 — NAHA. Full day at leisure. Your Local Guide will be available to assist as needed. Perfect day to relax and/or visit with family and friends in Okinawa. Don't miss the out on the numerous shopping opportunities on Kokusai-Dori — including the Heiwa-Dori covered shopping arcade or the Don Quijote that is open until 3:00 am everyday! (B)

Day 7: Fri, Jan 30 — NAHA — NANJO — NAHA. Another full day of exploring is ahead! Start the day with a visit to Okinawa World a theme park about Okinawan culture. The park's main attractions are a massive natural cave, a craft village and a habu (snake) museum. With a total length of five kilometers, Gyokusendo Cave is the longest of the many caves in the south of Okinawa Island and the second longest cave in the entire country. 850 meters of the cave are open to the public and feature spectacular stalactites and stalagmites. The Kingdom Village is a nice replica of a traditional Ryukyu village with workshops introducing the various traditional Okinawan crafts, such as weaving, dyeing, paper making, pottery, sugar cane processing, the making of music instruments, and the more recently introduced glass blowing. Colorful Ryukyu glass is one of those must have souvenirs when visiting Okinawa. Taking a tour of the work shop allows visitors to see how the craftsmen create their art. Hands-on experiences are offered at many of the workshops. Enjoy a buffet lunch while there. You'll then have your chance to paint your own shisa — a traditional Ryukyuan cultural artifact derived from Chinese guardian lions, often seen in similar pairs, resembling a cross between a lion and a dog, from Okinawan mythology. Shisas are believed to protect from some evils — with the left shisa traditionally having a closed mouth keeping good spirits in, while the open mouth shisa on the right traditionally wards off evil spirits. This evening enjoy dinner at a local restaurant. (B, L, D)

Day 8: Sat, Jan 31 — NAHA — HANEDA — YOKOHAMA. Depart Naha Airport via Japan Airlines flt #904 at 11:30 am. Arrive in the Haneda Domestic Airport at 1:40 pm. Transfer by motorcoach to the Yokohama Chinatown, where dinner has been arranged, along with free time for exploring on your own. Arrive at the hotel for an evening of leisure. YOKOHAMA BAY SHERATON HOTEL & TOWERS (2 Nights) (B, D)

Day 9: Sun, Feb 01 — YOKOHAMA — KAWAZU — YOKOHAMA. After breakfast walk to Yokohama Train Station where we will board an Odoriko Limited Express Train to Kawazu on the beautiful Izu Peninsula. As soon as you step off the train in Kawazu you are greeted by the aromas of freshly roasted corn, grilled chicken and squid from the nearby food stalls. Enjoy a day at the KAWAZU CHERRY BLOSSOM FESTIVAL! The pink of the Kawazu sakura and the yellow of the field mustard which is lined along the Kawazu sakura lane create a vivid and fantastic contrast of colors. Return to Yokohama by train. Enjoy a buffet dinner at the hotel. (B, D)

Day 10: Mon, Feb 02 — YOKOHAMA — TOKYO. After a leisurely breakfast, begin the day at Shin-Yokohama Ramen Museum, the world's first ramen-themed amusement park. Founded in 1994, it was created to be the one-stop place to enjoy the flavors of this national dish from renowned shops across Japan without having to step on a plane. Learn about the history and culture of ramen. Then take part in a ramen making experience, where you will make noodles using the traditional Chinese method of "green bamboo beating" and enjoy learning how flour is transformed into ramen. After lunch, explore the all-new TeamLab Art Museum — Azabudai Hills. "TeamLab Borderless is a world of artworks without boundaries, a museum without a map created by art collective TeamLab. Artworks move out of rooms, relate to other works, influence each other, and at times intermingle, without boundaries. Through this group of works, one continuous world without boundaries is created. Immerse your body in borderless art. Wander, explore with intention, discover, and create a world with others." Transfer to the hotel in Tokyo, where the remainder of the day is at your leisure. The hotel is located in the bustling Shinjuku district, full of shopping and dining opportunities. KEIO PLAZA HOTEL TOKYO (2 Nights) (B, L)

Day 11: Tue, Feb 03 — TOKYO. Day at leisure. Perfect day to relax and/or visit with family and friends in Tokyo. Your Local Guide will be available to assist as needed. (B)

Day 12: Wed, Feb 04 — TOKYO — HANEDA — HONOLULU. After breakfast, depart the hotel for a day of shopping!!! Begin at Toyosu Senkyaku Banrai, a shopping complex that recreates an Edo period neighborhood. Senkyaku Banrai offers fresh food from the neighboring Toyosu Market and serves to showcase the best foods in Tokyo. Enjoy time for shopping and lunch (on your own), exploring the offerings at the numerous stalls. If you get tired, head up to the 8th floor and relax at the foot bath garden — which is free of charge to all visitors. Asakusa is the center of Tokyo's shitamachi (literally "low city"), one of Tokyo's districts, where an atmosphere of the Tokyo of past decades survives. Asakusa's Main attraction is Sensoji, a very popular Buddhist temple, built in the 7th century. The temple is approached via the Nakamise, a shopping street that has been providing temple visitors with a variety of traditional local snacks and tourist souvenirs for centuries. Then visit Ameyoko, a busy market street along the Yamanote Line tracks between Okachimachi and Ueno Stations. The name "Ameyoko" is a short form for "Ameya Yokocho" ("candy store alley"), as candies were traditionally sold there. Alternatively, "Ame" also stands for "America," because a lot of American products used to be available there when the street was the site of a black market in the years following WWII. Today, various products such as clothes, bags, cosmetics, fresh fish, dried food, and spices are sold along Ameyoko. Transfer to the Haneda Airport for the flight home. Depart Haneda International Airport via Japan Airlines flt #74 at 9:00 pm and arrive Honolulu at 8:45 am the same day. Aloha and welcome home! (B)
