OVERVIEW: Okinawa is home to a unique culture that differs considerably from that of mainland Japan. Until the islands were invaded by the Satsuma domain (present day Kagoshima Prefecture) in 1609, Okinawa existed as an entirely separate country from Japan, known as the Ryukyu Kingdom. After the invasion, the Ryukyu Kingdom served as a tributary state to Japan, but continued to be governed by the royal family from Shuri Castle. It was not until 1879, a few years after the Meiji Restoration, that the kingdom was abolished and incorporated into Japan as Okinawa Prefecture. The castles of Okinawa, known as "Gusuku" in the Okinawan language, are among the most vivid monuments that testify to the unique cultural and historical heritage of the Ryukyu Kingdom. In the year 2000, five castles and four related sites were designated as UNESCO World Heritage Sites under the collective title of "Gusuku Sites and Related Properties of the Kingdom of Ryukyu."

Day 4: Mon, Nov 16 — NAHA — ITOMAN — NANJO — NAHA. After breakfast, we visit two WWII memorial sites. Begin by exploring the Himeyuri Peace Museum, which details what the Okinawan people experienced: from the atrocities of war, to their struggles during American occupation, and the difficulties they faced with the switching of government powers in the post-war years. The museum also commemorates the fate of the female high school students that had worked in the army field hospitals under horrendous conditions, many of which did not survive the war. Testimonials of the few survivors of the Battle of Okinawa are exhibited here, offering detailed recollections of their painful experiences. Next is the Okinawa Peace Memorial Park, situated on Mabuni Hill, the site where the Battle of Okinawa ended, was created to mourn the loss of close to a quarter of a million people. One of the key features of the park is the Cornerstone of Peace inscribed with the names of some 200,000 individuals, including civilians and Japanese and foreign soldiers, who lost their lives in the Battle of Okinawa. The concept of the stone monuments is to remember those who died and to pray for them, to share lessons learned from war and to provide a place for meditation and learning. Spend the afternoon exploring Okinawa World, a theme park about Okinawan culture. The park's main attractions are a massive natural cave, craft village, and a habu (snake) museum. With a total length of 5km, Gyokusendo Cave is the longest of the many caves in southern Okinawa, and the second longest cave in the entire country. 850m of the cave are open to the public and feature spectacular stalactites and stalagmites. The Kingdom Village is a nice replica of a traditional Ryukyu village with workshops introducing the various traditional Okinawan crafts, such as weaving, dyeing, paper making, pottery, sugar cane processing, the making of music instruments, and the more recently introduced glass blowing. Colorful Ryukyu glass is one of those must-have souvenirs when visiting Okinawa. Taking a tour of the work shop allows visitors to see how the craftsmen create their art. Hands-on experiences are offered at many of the workshops. Enjoy lunch here. Transfer back to the hotel. This evening, enjoy dinner at a local restaurant. (B, L, D)

*Baggage will be held at the hotel in Naha. Prepare an overnight bag for two nights.

Day 5: Tue, Nov 17 — NAHA — ONNA — KITANAKAGUSUKU — MANZA. After breakfast, we head north to Onna and spend the morning at Ryukyu Mura, a small theme park about Okinawan culture in the form of a recreated village from the times of the Ryukyu Kingdom. The highlight of the village is the eisa show. Eisa, a form of folk dance originating in the Okinawa, is performed during the obon festival to honor the spirits of one's ancestors. In the finale of the eisa show, visitors can join in on the dance known as kachashi. The word "kachashi" in the Okinawan dialect means "to mix" — it implies the idea of sharing happiness, which fosters a sense of unity that transcends borders and language barriers. Then, stop at AEON MALL Okinawa Rycom for shopping and lunch (on your own). Next, we visit an awamori (rice liquor) factory. Awamori is the signature alcoholic beverage of Okinawa. Learn the unique process involved in making awamori. Enjoy dinner at the hotel tonight. ANA INTERCONTINENTAL MANZA BEACH RESORT (2 Nights) (B, D)

Day 6: Wed, Nov 18 — MANZA — MOTOBU — NAKIJIN — MANZA. After an incredible breakfast buffet, enjoy a visit to the Okinawa Churaumi Aquarium, one of the largest and most renowned aquariums in the world. Located within the Ocean Expo Park, a large, multi-attraction recreational complex, it is widely considered Japan's best aquarium. A highlight of the aquarium is the massive Kuroshio Sea Tank, one of the largest in the world. Enjoy lunch (on your own) here. Next, visit the ruins of Nakijin Castle and learn about the history of Okinawa. The castle is a former residence of the Ryukyu Kingdom governor during the 14th century and is a designated UNESCO World Heritage site. Let your creative side loose when you paint a Shisa, a traditional Ryukyuan cultural artifact and decoration. Often seen in pairs and resemble a cross between a lion and a dog, shisa are from Okinawan mythology, and are believed to protect from some evils. People place pairs of shisa on their rooftops or flanking gates to their houses, with the left shisa traditionally has a closed mouth, the right one an open mouth. The open mouth shisa traditionally wards off evil spirits, while the closed mouth shisa keeps good spirits in. Transfer back to the hotel for dinner. (B, D)

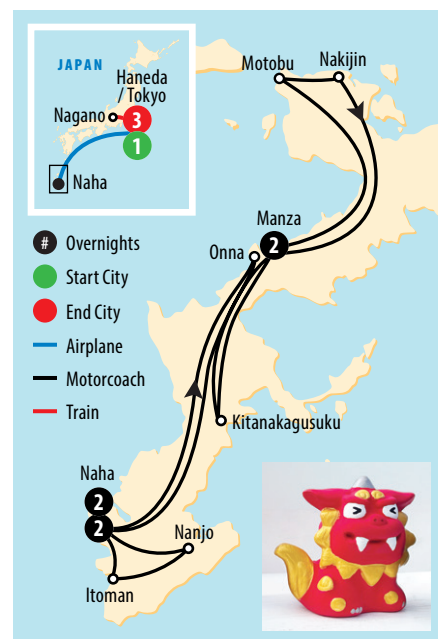

Day 7: Thur, Nov 19 — MANZA — NAHA. Say goodbye to the beautiful coral reefs, cobalt blue ocean views, and pristine white beaches of Manza Beach as you depart the hotel. Before leaving Manza, make a stop at Sweets House. After lunch, visit Shuri Castle (Shurijo), the most important castle of the Ryukyu Kingdom, serving both as the central government office and royal residence. Although the main buildings of Shuri Castle were destroyed in a fire in October 2019, reconstruction to bring back the castle to its former glory is expected to be completed in 2026. Shurijo is the only castle in Okinawa that has been reconstructed. Only ruins remain of all the other castles. Dress up in Ryusou Ryukyu kimonos for a group photo! Coral is a fundamental part of the history and culture of the Okinawan Islands. Many areas of Okinawa's main island are made of Ryukyu limestone formed by ancient coral reefs several hundred thousand years ago. Today, coral fossils are often used to create various art pieces in Okinawa. Try your hand at bringing your own art to life when you learn how to decorate a tote bag using ryuzen zome, a coral dyeing technique done only in Okinawa. After arriving at the hotel, walk to a nearby restaurant for an Okinawan dinner. HOTEL COLLECTIVE (2 Nights) (B, L, D)

Day 8: Fri, Nov 20 — NAHA. Full day at leisure. The perfect day to relax and/or visit with family and friends in Okinawa. Don't miss the out on the numerous shopping opportunities on Kokusai-dori, the main shopping street in Naha, including the Heiwa-dori shopping arcade or the Don Quijote that is open until 3:00 am every day! Your Local Guide will be available to assist as needed. (B)

Day 9: Sat, Nov 21 — NAHA — HANEDA — TOKYO. Depart Naha Airport via Japan Airlines flt #904 at 11:15 am and arrive at Haneda Domestic Airport at 1:30 pm. En route to the hotel, a stop will be made at LaLaport Toyosu, a mall located on Tokyo Bay that has 180 shops, including UNIQLO, DAISO, and more. This evening, enjoy a buffet dinner at the hotel. The park is inhabited by Japanese Macaques, which are also known as Snow Monkeys. The park has one man-made pool around which the monkeys gather. Then, travel to Zenkoji Temple, one of the most important and popular temples in Japan. Return to Tokyo via JR Super Express Train. The remainder of the evening is at your leisure. Day 12: Tue, Nov 24 — TOKYO — HANEDA — HONOLULU. After breakfast, embark on a full day of discovery! Begin the day exploring Toyosu Senkyaku Banrai, a shopping complex that recreates an Edo period neighborhood. Toyosu Senkyaku Banrai offers fresh food from the neighboring Toyosu Market and serves to showcase the best foods in Tokyo. Enjoy time for shopping and lunch (on your own), exploring the offerings at the numerous stalls. If you get tired, head up to the 8th floor and relax at the foot bath garden, which is free of charge to all visitors. Then, head to Asakusa, the center of Tokyo's shitamachi (literally "low city"), one of Tokyo's districts, where an atmosphere of the Tokyo of past decades survives. Asakusa's main attraction is Sensoji, a very popular Buddhist temple built in the 7th century. The temple is approached via the Nakamise, a shopping street that has been providing temple visitors with a variety of traditional local snacks and tourist souvenirs for centuries. Next is Ameyoko, a busy market street between Okachimachi and Ueno Stations. The name "Ameyoko" is a short form for "Ameya Yokocho" ("candy store alley"), as candies were traditionally sold there. Alternatively, "Ame" also stands for "America", because a lot of American products used to be available there when the street was the site of a black market in the years following WWII. Today, various products such as clothes, bags, cosmetics, fresh fish, dried food, and spices are sold along Ameyoko. Transfer to the Haneda Airport for the flight home.
