ONI DAIKO —
Demon Drums Performance!

Day 1: Mon, Nov 09 – HONOLULU. Depart Honolulu via Japan Airlines flt #73 at 12:05 pm.

Day 2: Tue, Nov 10 – HANEDA – OMIYA. Arrive in the Haneda International Airport at 4:05 pm. After entry formalities, transfer by coach to your hotel in Omiya. The remainder of the evening is at your leisure. The hotel is conveniently located a five-minute walk from the JR Omiya Station, which is one of the largest stations in the Saitama Prefecture. There will be various choices for shopping and dining at the train station. PALACE HOTEL OMIYA (1 Night)

*Baggage will be carried by truck from Omiya to Nagano, skipping Sado Island. Prepare an overnight bag for two nights.

Day 3: Wed, Nov 11 – OMIYA – NIIGATA – SADO ISLAND. After a sumptuous breakfast buffet at hotel, walk to Omiya Station. Transfer to Niigata by JR Super Express Train. Upon arrival on Niigata, visit the Northern Culture Museum, which originally serving as a mansion of Ito Bunkichi, who lived during the Edo period and was one of the greatest landowners in Japan. Nowadays, the museum houses calligraphy and ceramics, lacquer ware, and documents related to Ito's family history. Don't forget to view the beautiful garden with its large pond. Enjoy lunch here. Transfer to Niigata Port to ride a jet foil to Sado Island. Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel. Tonight, savor a traditional multi-course Kaiseki Dinner, featuring ingredients unique to Sado Island. During dinner, watch an oni daiko (demon drums) performance. Tonight, try out the onsen hot springs, which are divided for men and women. The high-quality service and facilities are sure to become some of your fondest memories of your visit to Japan. HOTEL YAHATAKAN (2 Nights) (B, L, D)

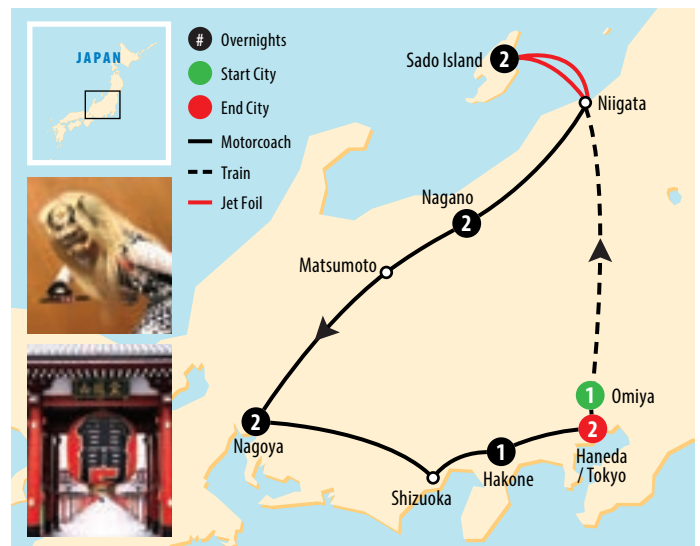

Day 4: Thur, Nov 12 – SADO ISLAND. Begin the day at Kirarium Sado, the Sado Gold Mine Welcome Center, where you will learn everything you need to know about the gold mine. Head over to Sado Gold Mine to learn about the 400+ year history of the largest gold mine in Japan. Full-size dolls and robots provide an accurate representation of the historic workings of the mine during the Edo period. In the museum, you can try to lift a pure gold bar – a value of over 100 million yen – out of a clear box. Many have tried, but few have succeeded! Next, learn to make your own soba noodles and eat your delicious creation for lunch. After, take a traditional tarai-bune boat ride. These 150cm diameter boats are constructed out of cedar wrapped with bamboo on the outside. Developed and used during Edo and Meiji periods, the tarai-bune boats were ideal for tight turns and stability amidst the abundant reefs and coves along the Ogi Peninsula. Then, visit the charming fishing village of Shukunegi, which is designated as a National Historic Site. Take a stroll along the narrow streets to feel the history and experience the living conditions of people living during the Edo period. Here, you will be able to find the popular sankaku-ya, which is a triangle-shaped house, built to fit the shape of the land available at that period of time. Enjoy a Western dinner at a local restaurant before returning to the hotel. (B, L, D)

Day 5: Fri, Nov 13 – SADO ISLAND – NIIGATA – NAGANO. This morning, take a tour of the Toki Forest Park, a conservation park of the crested ibis that allows visitors to see the endangered species up close. Then, ride a jet foil back to Niigata. En route to your hotel in Nagano, visit the Asahi-Shuzo Sake Brewery, which was founded in 1830. Since its founding, Asahi-Shuzo has continued to brew sake under the "quality first" principle, using soft water drawn from pure underground streams that flow under the brewery, as well top-quality rice from local farmers. Asahi-Shuzo's passion for using only Niigata-grown ingredients has earned them numerous awards in Japan and abroad. Take a tour the facilities, learn how their sake is made, and enjoy a sake tasting. Tonight, relax in the onsen hot springs after enjoying dinner at the hotel. RYOKAN BIYUNOYADO (2 Nights) (B, D)

Day 6: Sat, Nov 14 – NAGANO. After breakfast, enjoy a full-day of sightseeing in Nagano by coach. First, visit Jigokudani Monkey Park for the unique experience of seeing wild monkeys bathing in a natural onsen. Next, travel to Zenkoji Temple, one of the most important and popular temples in Japan. After lunch (on your own), take a stroll around Obuse, a small town renown for Edo period woodblock painter, Katsushika Hokusai. Best known for his ukiyo-e woodblock print The Great Wave off Kanagawa, Hokusai spent the later years of his life in Obuse. Several of the town's highlights are related to Hokusai. Enjoy free time to explore the town's many craft shops and stores. Finally, stop at a local farm to pick some apples at the peak of ripeness. A great late afternoon snack! Return to the hotel for dinner. (B, D)

Day 7: Sun, Nov 15 – NAGANO – MATSUMOTO – NAGOYA. After breakfast, stop at Ishii Miso, a miso brewery that still produces miso using traditional methods. Miso, a fermented soybean paste, is an essential ingredient in Japanese cuisine. Unlike the cheaper mass produced miso that is aged for only a few months in plastic or metal barrels, Ishii Miso ferments their miso for over three years in huge cedar barrels, giving it a much deeper taste. Enjoy lunch while here. Be sure to try the miso infused ice cream! After, explore Matsumoto Castle, one of Japan's premier historic castles that is also listed as a National Treasure of Japan. Continue to Nagoya, where the remainder of the evening is at your leisure. The Local Guide will have suggestions for dining and shopping nearby. NAGOYA MARRIOTT ASSOCIA HOTEL (2 Nights) (B, L)

Day 8: Mon, Nov 16 – NAGOYA. Begin the day at Arimatsu Narumi Tie-Dyeing Museum, a museum and workshop on the history of shibori (tie dyeing). You can learn about the 400+ years of history of shibori and purchase beautiful shibori products. The museum also holds demonstrations, where you can watch the talented shibori craftsmen create beautiful works of art. Next, stop at an AEON MALL, with free time for shopping and lunch (on your own). When the son of Emperor Keiko passed away, his widow gathered his belongings, including the legendary Kusanagi Sword, and venerated his memory in a shrine at her home. Sometime later, these relics were moved to its current location at Atsuta Shrine. The Kusanagi Sword is one of the Three Sacred Treasures (Imperial Regalia) of Japan, which symbolize the divine authority of the Emperor and represent three core virtues: valor, wisdom, and benevolence. Return to the hotel for an evening of leisure. (B)

*Baggage will be carried by truck from Nagoya to Tokyo, skipping Hakone. Prepare an overnight bag for one night.

Day 9: Tue, Nov 17 – NAGOYA – SHIZUOKA – HAKONE. After breakfast, take a tour of a Green Tea Factory and learn about this distinctly Japanese beverage. Next, make a stop at Michi-no-Eki Kakegawa for lunch (on your own), along with a chance to get a little shopping done. Not only do these roadside stations provide a clean and convenient rest stop, but you will also find an array of farmer-direct merchandise along with other omiyage items. Next, learn how to make a bamboo basket. Continue to Hakone, where much of the area is considered an active volcanic zone since its creation from eruption of Mt. Hakone some 3,000 years ago. Enjoy a buffet dinner at the hotel. Tonight is your last chance to soak in an onsen hot spring. Don't miss out! HAKONE KOWAKIEN HOTEL (1 Night) (B, D)

Day 10: Wed, Nov 18 – HAKONE – TOKYO. After breakfast, travel to Owakudani ("Great Boiling Valley") and see the source of the onsen waters of Hakone. View the surrounding countryside from the Hakone Ropeway. After lunch, try your hand at Hakone Yosegi-Zaiku, an inlaid mosaic woodwork unique to this area. A great souvenir of this trip! Transfer to Tokyo and enjoy dinner at the hotel. GRAND NIKKO TOKYO DAIBA (2 Nights) (B, L, D)

Day 11: Thur, Nov 19 – TOKYO. Full day at leisure. A perfect day to shop, dine, and explore Tokyo. Your Local Guide will be available to assist as needed. (B)

Day 12: Fri, Nov 20 – TOKYO – HANEDA – HONOLULU. After a sumptuous buffet breakfast embark on a day of discovery! Today's highlight will be a hands-on sushi making session, which will yield your delicious lunch. After, visit Asakusa, the center of Tokyo's shitamachi (literally "low city"). It is one of Tokyo's districts where an atmosphere of the Tokyo of past decades survives. Asakusa's main attraction is Sensoji, a very popular Buddhist temple built in the 7th century. The temple is approached via the Nakamise, a shopping street that has been providing temple visitors with a variety of traditional local snacks and souvenirs for centuries. Next is Ameyoko, a busy market street between Okachimachi and Ueno Stations. Various products such as clothes, bags, cosmetics, fresh fish, dried food and spices are sold along Ameyoko. Transfer to the Haneda International Airport for the flight home. Depart Haneda via Japan Airlines flt #74 at 9:00 pm and arrive Honolulu at 9:00 am the same day. Aloha and welcome home! (B, L)
