Day 3: Tuesday, December 28, 2027 Cascais, Portugal Say hello to the Portuguese Riviera, your home for the next two nights. With no scheduled sightseeing today, spend the day as you wish, exploring the city independently. Mansions scattered about Cascais and Monte Estoril – all hint at its history as a haven for exiled European royals and nobility. Tonight, join your fellow travelers for a welcome dinner. (D)

Day 4: Wednesday, December 29, 2027 Cascais - Nazaré - Óbidos - Cascais Venture to Nazaré, a traditional fishing town along the coast, where Atlantic beaches, maritime history, and local traditions shape daily life. Take in sweeping ocean views, the legendary giant waves, and the energy of this seaside community. Explore the picture-perfect village of Óbidos, where whitewashed houses sit snug within medieval city walls. Stroll through its charming cobblestone streets and enjoy a tasting of the region's beloved ginjinha, the local sour-cherry liqueur traditionally served in small chocolate cups. (B)

Day 5: Thursday, December 30, 2027 Cascais - Lisbon - Funchal, Madeira Fly to Madeira, the "Pearl of the Atlantic." Wander along the colorful Rua de Santa Maria, decorated with vibrant murals, and enjoy lunch on your own at one of the island's many restaurants. Then embark on a walking tour of Funchal's old downtown with its quaint narrow streets and historical sites, such as a 15th-century cathedral. Visit the Botanical Garden of Madeira with its collection of more than 2,500 plants from all continents. (B)

Day 6: Friday, December 31, 2027 Funchal - Ponta de São Lourenço - New Year's Eve Gala - Funchal Allow the warm ocean breeze to brush against your skin as you spend time exploring coastal Garajau. Continue to Ponta de São Lourenço, the easternmost point of the island, and gaze out over the deep blue waves with your unparalleled view of the Atlantic. Enjoy time to relax and prepare for a lively evening at an elegant New Year's Eve Gala.* Ring in the New Year in the most unforgettable way as you watch Madeira's world-famous fireworks display. (B, D)

Day 7: Saturday, January 01, 2028 Funchal Spend the first day of the new year in Funchal as you please. With a full day in the capital city, enjoy the beautiful island as you see fit. You may wish to join locals and visitors for the Madeira Plunge at the Lido Bathing Complex, a spirited New Year's tradition held on the morning of January 1. Participants gather from late morning into early afternoon for a refreshing dip in the Atlantic, often donning seasonal accessories such as Father Christmas hats to welcome the new year in an unorthodox way. Many restaurants and hotel dining rooms offer special holiday menus. It's a great way to indulge in classic island dishes — fresh fish, espetada, bolo do caco, or a sip of poncha — while soaking in sea. (B)

Day 8: Sunday, January 02, 2028 Funchal - Câmara de Lobos - Porto Moniz - Funchal Begin your day at Câmara de Lobos, a 15th-century town that's both a humble fishing village and sunny nature retreat. Drive along banana plantations and winding vineyards en route to the world's second-highest cliff – Cabo Girão. Visit the fishing village of Porto Moniz and see its natural volcanic pools before returning to Funchal. Gather in the evening for an espetada, a traditional dinner cooked over an open fire, accompanied by folk dancers and music. (B, D)

From here, stroll into the Baixa, the city's historic commercial center, where Pombaline streets lead past lively cafés, bakeries, and traditional shops. As you walk, soak in the rhythm of everyday Lisbon — street performers, tiled façades, and inviting storefronts — before reaching the bustling upper streets, an ideal area to complete your route with a delicious meal. This tour will end around 12:00 p.m., and the afternoon is yours to explore Lisbon as you wish. Fado is the soulful blend of voice and the Portuguese guitar, a musical expression so central to Portugal that UNESCO has recognized it as an Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity. Its name comes from the Latin fatum: fate, reflecting themes of longing, love, and life's emotional turns. In the winding streets of traditional neighborhoods such as Bairro Alto or Alfama, local restaurants serve as intimate stages for this timeless art. Here, professional singers and musicians perform as you enjoy an authentic Portuguese tasting menu, an evening where music, tradition, and Lisbon's spirit come together. Duration: Approximately 4 hours. Please note a minimum of 6 passengers is required. Transportation is included.
