Farmer’s Market. New dishes are offered every week highlighting the current in season harvest. Enjoy an included lunch here. After lunch, visit the Colosseum, the largest amphitheater ever built. It could hold an estimated 50,000 to 80,000 spectators – with an average audience size of 65,000. It was used for gladiatorial contests, animal hunts, executions, and re-enactments of famous battles. Although substantially damaged by earthquakes and stone robbers, the Colosseum is still a renowned symbol of Imperial Rome and is listed as one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. The Roman Forum was the scene of public meetings, courts of law, and gladiatorial combats in republican times, and was lined with shops and open-air markets. It was the most important forum during ancient Rome and is situated on the low ground between the Palatine and Capitoline Hills. The Arch of Constantine marks the first time a Roman emperor celebrated victory over fellow Romans so blatantly. The 20 meter high monumental arch is situated between the Colosseum and the Temple of Venus and Roma – making it a highly visible reminder of Constantine’s triumph. The Palatine Hill was once considered the cradle of the Italian capital and believed to be inhabited since 1,000 BC. The site is now mainly a large open-air museum. Finally, you will learn to cook just like “Nonna” (Grandma) using inherited recipes. You are welcomed with drinks and antipasti to Passetto. The chef will teach the class how to make two fresh pastas in a state-of-the-art kitchen. But what to stuff or adorn the pastas with? This will depend on the season, and you are welcome to specify if there is a specific pasta dish they would like to learn to make. To finish the class will come together in the dining room to enjoy what has been prepared with local wines and coffee. A lovely evening in Rome. After dinner, transfer to the hotel. You may also explore the Catacombs of San Domitilla, the oldest catacomb, with features a 2nd century fresco of The Last Supper and is accessed by passing through a 4th century church. Afterward, visit the Papal Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls, one of Rome’s four ancient, major Papal basilicas. Discover the heart of Cucina Romana (Roman cuisine) on this fun and delicious half-day guided walking tour through Testaccio, Rome’s original foodie district! All along the way, your expert guide will entertain and educate you as you make nine food stops and enjoy 12 delicious tastings for the best of what the city has to offer. After a short stop here, proceed via Marino and Grottaferrata to nearby Frascati, renowned as an artistic center and for its production of white wine. Relax at a rustic tavern near the charming market square for a delightful dinner featuring delectable regional dishes, unlimited white wine, and festive accordion music. (B, D)
